NOVEMBER 2025

Hearts of Gratitude Hands of Generosity

As November arrives with its crisp air and changing leaves, we find ourselves naturally drawn to reflection on God's abundant blessings. This season of harvest and Thanksgiving provides a beautiful opportunity to consider how gratitude and generosity flow together in the Christian life—not as separate virtues, but as two streams from the same fountain of God's grace.

St. Paul's words to the Thessalonians ring with extraordinary power: "Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18). Notice that Paul doesn't say to give thanks for all circumstances, but in all circumstances. This thanksgiving isn't rooted in our shifting situations but in the unchanging character of our God.

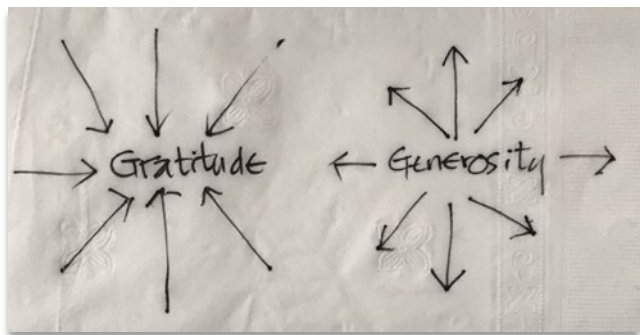

The Psalmist knew this truth well, proclaiming, "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His love endures forever" (Psalm 136:1). This verse begins a psalm where "His love endures forever" appears twenty-six times—a powerful reminder that God's steadfast love is the bedrock of our gratitude. When we anchor our thanksgiving in God's eternal love rather than temporal blessings, we discover a joy that circumstances cannot shake.

In his letter to the Colossians, Paul reveals another beautiful dimension of thankfulness: "Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful" (Colossians 3:15). Here we see that gratitude and peace are companions. When Christ's peace reigns in our hearts, thankfulness naturally follows. And remarkably, when we practice thanksgiving, we find our hearts more open to His peace.

As we gather for worship, share in fellowship, and live as the body of Christ, this thankfulness becomes not just an individual practice but a communal celebration. We give thanks not only for what God has done in our own lives but for His work in our congregation and throughout His Church.

Here's where our November theme takes a beautiful turn: hearts filled with gratitude naturally overflow in generosity. Jesus teaches us, "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you" (Luke 6:38).

This isn't a prosperity formula but a kingdom principle. When we truly grasp how generous God has been to us—giving His only Son for our salvation—how can we not respond with open hands and hearts? The image Jesus paints is vivid: grain pressed down and shaken together to make room for more, then heaped so high it spills over. This is how God gives to us, and it's how we're called to give to others.

O GIVE THANKS UNTO THE LORD, FOR HE IS GOOD: FOR HIS MERCY ENDURETH FOR EVER. LET THE REDEEMED
OF THE LORD SAY SO...

PSALM 107:1-2

Living Gratitude & Generosity Out This November

As we move through this month of thanksgiving, I encourage you to consider:

In Your Personal Life: Begin each day by naming three specific blessings, no matter how your circumstances look. Let gratitude shape your first thoughts and your last prayers.

In Your Family: Share your thanksgiving around the dinner table—not just on Thanksgiving Day, but throughout the month. Help your children see God's faithfulness in both big and small ways.

In Your Giving: Prayerfully consider how God might be calling you to generous action. Perhaps it's supporting our food pantry ministry, being part of Operation Christmas Child, volunteering additional hours, or reaching out to someone who needs encouragement. Remember, generosity multiplies joy—both in the giver and receiver.

In Our Congregation: Let's make this a month of extraordinary encouragement. Share with others how you've seen God work through their service. Write that note of thanks you've been meaning to send. Celebrate the ways God is using our church family to bless our community, especially as we continue taking steps to enact TLC Vision 2030. Complete the 2026 Pledge Card and return it at worship services on November 23.

This November, may we be people marked by overwhelming gratitude and openhanded generosity. May our thankfulness be rooted not in our circumstances but in our Savior's steadfast love. And may our generosity flow not from obligation but from joy, as we share the blessings God has so freely given us.

In Christ's Service,

Pastor Andy

TLC Book Club

The book for November continues with Martin Luther: The Man Who Rediscovered God and Changed the World by Eric Metaxas.

Written in riveting prose and impeccably researched, Martin Luther tells the searing tale of a humble man who, by bringing ugly truths to the highest seats of power, caused the explosion whose sound is still ringing in our ears.

Luther's monumental faith and courage gave birth to the ideals of liberty, equality, and individualism that today lie at the heart of all modern life.

Chapters 11-Epilogue for November.

Operation Christmas Child

It's that time of year again. Operation Christmas Child is here! Collection week is from November 17 - November 24. Drop-off hours are posted throughout the church. We encourage you to take as many empty shoeboxes from the Narthex as you'd like to fill and return them during one of the drop-off times. Every shoebox is a "Gospel Opportunity"!

Please remember the $10 shipping cost per box. The $10 suggested donation for each shoebox covers much more than just shipping, including the cost of collecting, processing, and transporting the gifts globally, as well as providing ministry materials like gospel booklets and training for local church volunteers. This donation is critical for ensuring the shoebox gift, and the accompanying Christian message, reaches a child in need. If God moves you to help with the shipping costs for the shoeboxes we pack at the packing party, please make the checks payable to "Samaritan's Purse" and give to Alisha Wright.

Thank you for all your generous donations throughout the year. If there are items you see while shopping and would still like to donate them, that would be great!

Our big shoebox pizza packing party will be held on Thursday, November 20 from 5:00 - 8:00 pm. There is a sign up sheet by the mailboxes. This is a great night of joy and fellowship as we prepare shoebox gifts. If you want to participate this year, please sign up. I do need a headcount so I know how many pizzas to order.

Thank you in advance to everyone who helps in every way. This ministry is bigger than one person and bigger than one church! I appreciate everyone's willingness to give their time and resources.

The last request would be for your prayers. Please pray as you fill your box for the child who will receive it that he/she would believe in Jesus Christ (as well as their families) and be saved. Please also pray for all the volunteers at all the drop-off sites to be strengthened and encouraged and for the week to be the most successful yet.

Thank you all so much ~ Alisha Wright
